STORY LINES
Today, the Capital University volleyball team hosts local rival Ohio Wesleyan in a non-conference affair at the Capital Center.

Capital earned its first victory of the season, a three-set win over Frostburg (Md.) State, at the Hiram Invitational. For the weekend, the Crusaders finished with a 1-3 mark, falling in identical four-set fashion against Carnegie Mellon (Pa.) and Hiram on Friday, and Geneva (Pa.) on Saturday. Following play, senior middle hitter Leanne Schaefer (Verona, Wis.) was named to the All-Tournament team after totaling 34 kills and a team-high 13 blocks. Senior libero Shannon Quinn (Miamisburg, Ohio) contributed with 103 digs, while sophomores Marissa Price (Tiffin, Ohio) and Melissa Verhoff (Ottawa, Ohio) combined for 87 kills. One week ago, Capital erased a two-set deficit but was unable to pull it out in the deciding set, falling in five at Denison. Quinn recorded 18 digs in the setback.

Last night, Ohio Wesleyan knocked off Wilmington by a 25-12, 25-14, 25-13 score. Megan Weissenberger led the Battling Bishops with 11 kills, while Brittany Vickers added seven kills and a team-best 23 assists.

Crusader Spotlight

Leanne Schaefer traveled a ways to be a student-athlete at Capital University, and the Crusader volleyball team sure is glad she did.

Schaefer, a native of Madison, Wis., posted 34 kills and 13 blocks over the weekend to help Capital pick up its first of the season against Frostburg (Md.) State on Saturday at the Hiram Tournament. The senior middle hitter was named to the All-Tournament team as a result of her outstanding play.

Against Frostburg State, Schaefer registered nine kills and a team-best five block assists, helping put coach Pam Briggs one victory closer to the 400th of her 20-year career.

Schaefer’s improved play and leadership as one of two seniors on the team are reason for optimism heading into the bulk of the non-conference season. Through nine matches, Schaefer leads the team with 68 kills and 18 blocks.

Last season, Schaefer appeared in all 32 matches and led the team with 87 blocks (21 solos). She also tallied 221 kills (1.96 per set) and 34 assists.

Schaefer is majoring in history with a minor in art history. She is also a member of the women’s track & field team at Capital, competing primarily in high jump.
