The Crusaders begin a stretch of playing four of their next five games on the road at John Carroll. The Blue Streaks lead the nation in scoring defense (2.3 points per game) and top the league in INT, 20 yds.

The Blue Streaks own a 17-9-1 advantage in the all-time series and have won three straight and Longwell and sophomore wide receiver. The Crusaders were defeated 38-24 against Ohio Northern on Homecoming Saturday at Bernlohr. Junior defensive lineman. Capital was ranked or was receiving votes in the D3football.com Top 25 for eight straight seasons.

Scouting the Blue Streaks:

Capital at John Carroll - Saturday, Oct. 5
Don Shula Stadium - University Heights, Ohio

STORY LINES

- The Crusaders begin a stretch of playing four of their next five games on the road at John Carroll in an Ohio Athletic Conference showdown.
- The Blue Streaks own a 17-9-1 advantage in the all-time series and have won three straight and four of the last five meetings between the two teams.
- Capital leads the OAC in rushing offense (250.7 yards per game), quarterback sacks against (2 for 17 yards) and time of possession (34:52 per game).
- John Carroll made its first appearance in the D3football.com Top 25 since 2007, making its debut at No. 24 in this week’s rankings.
- The Blue Streaks lead the nation in scoring defense (2.3 points per game) and top the league in pass offense (353.7 yards per game) and pass defense (98.7 yards per game).
- The Crusaders were defeated 38-24 against Ohio Northern on Homecoming Saturday at Bernlohr Stadium. Capital trailed by just a touchdown after a 38-yard pass from freshman quarterback Chase Longwell to sophomore b-back Bo Hardy just over 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. On the ensuing drive, the Crusaders forced the Polar Bears to punt, but a penalty for running into the kicker extended the drive and ONU capped a 14-play, 74-yard drive with a touchdown. Capital then drove into Ohio Northern territory but was held on fourth and long.
- Longwell and sophomore wide receiver Zak Wirick led the offense. Longwell finished with 86 rushing yards and a touchdown and 138 passing yards and two scores, while Wirick registered four receptions for 67 yards and a touchdown.
- Junior defensive lineman Gene Rucker, senior linebacker Kyle Shaefner, junior linebacker TJ Langermeier and freshman defensive lineman Luke Scott and led the Crusaders defensively with seven tackles apiece. Scott posted the lone sack in the contest for Capital.
- Capital was ranked or was receiving votes in the D3football.com Top 25 for eight straight seasons from 2003-10. The Crusaders peaked in the rankings at No. 3 to finish the 2006 season, when they reached the NCAA quarterfinals.

Scouting the Blue Streaks: John Carroll has outscored its first three opponents, which were a combined 23-8 in 2012, by a 96-7 score ... the Blue Streaks defeated Otterbein 28-0 last Saturday in University Heights ... DaQuan Grossmith leads JCU in rushing with 192 yards and three touchdowns ... quarterback Mark Myers has thrown for 1,010 yards and seven touchdowns against just two interceptions ... Aramis Greenwood (19-275, 2 TDs) and Marshall Howell (18-387, 3 TDs) lead the receiving corps ... Mitch Krotz leads the defense with 31 tackles, including 4.0 for a loss.

MEN IN THE MIDDLE
Capital coach Craig Candeto pointed to the particularly strong play of sophomore defensive tackles Vince Austin and Isaac Livengood through three contests in the season.

Livengood finished with three tackles against Ohio Northern while Austin didn’t record a stop, but their impact has gone beyond statistics.

“Vince and Isaac are both undersized, but they’ve been pretty stout inside,” Candeto said.

Both first-year starters, Austin and Livengood have combined for 13 tackles and a pair of tackles for loss through three games.

HIGH “WIRE” ACT
Sophomore wide receiver Zak Wirick enjoyed a breakout game last Saturday against Ohio Northern. He caught four passes for 67 yards, including an acrobatic 24-yard touchdown catch from freshman quarterback Chase Longwell to put the Crusaders ahead 7-0 with 5:20 to play in the first quarter.

On second-and-four from the Ohio Northern 24-yard line, Longwell dropped back and lofted the ball to the right side of the end zone. Wirick, going up between two defenders, trapped the ball against his body with one hand and held it in tight with his left coming down to give Capital the early lead.

“Zak had a nice game,” Candeto said. “He went up and made some plays in the air when the ball was up there. That’s the type of stuff we need on offense. Chase’s throws weren’t perfect, and Zak went up and made plays on two different occasions.”

OAC LEADERS ABOUND
Several Crusaders rank among the leaders in the Ohio Athletic Conference in several statistical categories.

Senior slot back Alex Coleman leads the conference with 135.3 all-purpose yards per game. A Columbus native, Coleman has at least 50 yards rushing (112), receiving (51), returning punts (51) and returning kicks (192) for the season. Longwell and freshman b-back Brent Walton are tied for fourth in the league with 200 rushing yards apiece. Longwell currently ranks sixth in the league with 488 yards of total offense and second in the OAC in passing efficiency (183.5).

Defensively, senior defensive back Domenic Hebebrand is tied for ninth in the league with 488 yards of total offense and second in the OAC in passing efficiency (183.5).

Junior punt returner Joey Riley stands fifth in punting, averaging 39.1 yards per kick.

KEYS TO VICTORY
Playing against a talented team on both sides of the ball, Candeto stressed the importance of execution and mistake-free football in all three phases of the game - offense, defense and special teams.

“They’ve got a very good offense that we’ve got to stop,” Candeto said. “Their quarterback is a very good player, and they throw it around a lot. We need to be able to get some pressure on the quarterback and play great coverage as well.

“Offensively, we need to take care of the football. They’re a very athletic and very quick defense. They’ve got two shutouts this year, so we need to keep our defense off the field and try to sustain drives.”

Capital University enters its 88th season as a member of the Ohio Athletic Conference in 2013-14. The OAC is the nation’s third-oldest collegiate athletic conference and from its beginnings in 1902 has never wavered in its focus on the entire development of the student-athlete. The conference’s unparalleled success of all its members on and off the playing field has made the OAC one of the nation’s finest college conferences.

The OAC is predated only by the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (1888) and the Big Ten (1895). The OAC is older than the Rose Bowl, the World Series and even the NCAA itself and has survived two world wars, the Great Depression, the Korean War and the Vietnam Conflict. From a modest beginning of six charter members in 1902, the OAC grew to as many as 24 members in the mid-1920s. Through the years a total of 31 colleges and universities at one time or another have been members of the OAC. Currently, the conference consists of 10 members: Baldwin Wallace University, Capital University, Heidelberg University, John Carroll University, Marietta College, the University of Mount Union, Muskingum University, Ohio Northern University, Otterbein University and Wilmington College.

Case Tech’s football team won the OAC’s first conference title with a 5-0-0 record. Outdoor track was added a year later and a third sport, cross country, became a conference sport in 1914. More sports were steadily added to the OAC’s repertoire throughout the years, culminating in the addition of women’s sports in 1984. The OAC currently sponsors championships in 21 sports, 11 men’s and 10 women’s. All 10 of the OAC institutions were founded in the 19th century and have long and outstanding academic reputations.

While maintaining these high academic standards, Ohio Athletic Conference teams and athletes consistently have enjoyed a great deal of success on a regional and national level. The athletic competition is viewed not as an end in itself, but as an extension of the educational programs, academic values that make the OAC one of the finest conferences in the nation.

The Capital University football team begins the 2013 season under the direction of a new leader. Craig Candeto, a former standout Division I quarterback, Navy fighter pilot and assistant coach, was named the program’s 11th head coach in December. He inherits a team that posted a 2-8 overall record, including a 2-7 mark in Ohio Athletic Conference play, in 2012, the first time in more than a decade that the Crusaders finished with less than five wins in a year.

Capital returns 32 letter winners to the fold this fall, including several student-athletes with starting experience and both kickers. Senior quarterbacks Ryan Kremchek (Sylvania) and Alex Nydza begin the preseason as the front runners to work under center. Kremchek threw for 461 yards and three touchdowns a year ago, while Nydza ran for 134 yards and passed for 263. The starting quarterback will likely be joined in the backfield by sophomore running back Bo Hardy (Galloway), who was named honorable mention All-OAC after finishing fourth in the league in rushing yards per game (67.6). Overall, Hardy ran for 608 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns (1 rush/1 receiving). The Crusaders also return their top wide receiver in senior Alex Coleman (Columbus), who finished with 36 receptions for 528 yards and three scores. Coleman, who placed fourth in the conference in all-purpose yards (1,252) last year, is also the team’s primary punt and kick returner and is nearing school records in both categories. Capital is also set to return three starters on the offensive line, including seniors David Howson (Hudson) and Anthony Colucci (Ashtabula).

Defensively, the Crusaders return three-fourths of their starting secondary and a pair of starters in their linebacking corps. Senior defensive back Domenic Hebebrand (Hinckley) is a 2011 All-OAC honorable mention recipient and is the team’s top returning tackler. Hebebrand registered 67 stops, including 9.5 for a loss, and posted one interception and a forced fumble in 2012. Junior Adam Gammell (Silver Lake) also returns as a starter in the defensive backfield. Junior linebacker Matt Tash (Painesville) emerged late last season as one of the team’s top defensive players. Tash finished the year with 42 tackles, three sacks, an interception, a fumble recovery and a fumble forced. Sophomore linebacker Bryant Bokovitz (Gallipolis) also played his way into the starting lineup last season and looks to continue his strong play this fall.

Junior kicker Travis Bosanac (Strongsville) led the OAC with 10 field goals, including a long of 49 yards, in 13 attempts a year ago. He led Capital in scoring with 43 points. Junior punter Joseph Riley (Twinsburg) averaged 37.0 yards per punt and pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line 11 times last season.

The Crusaders kickoff the season on Saturday, Sept. 7, against Thomas More (Ky.) at Bernlohr Stadium. Following a bye week, Capital travels to Marietta for its OAC opener on Sept. 21. The team hosts Ohio Northern on Sept. 28 on Homecoming Saturday at Capital. After playing four of the next five on the road, a stretch during which the team’s lone home game is against defending national champion Mount Union (Oct. 19), the Crusaders close the season with consecutive home games against Muskingum (Nov. 9) and Wilmington (Nov. 16).
