STORY LINES

- The Crusaders play their fourth road game in the last five and their final contest away from home against cross-town Otterbein in an Ohio Athletic Conference showdown.
- Capital holds a slight 42-40-3 advantage in the all-time series, but the two teams have split the last 10 contests. During that span, the Crusaders have scored 204 points and the Cardinals have tallied 193 points. Otterbein won last year's game 23-9 at Bernlohr Stadium, returning two interceptions for touchdowns in the last four minutes of the fourth quarter to seal the victory.
- Today's contest has the makings of a defensive struggle. Capital is ranked ninth in the OAC with 14.0 points per contest, while Otterbein averages 11.1 points per game, which is 10th in the league.
- The Crusaders lead the conference in time of possession per game (32:54), while the Cardinals are tied for the OAC lead and eighth in the nation in turnovers lost (6).
- Both Capital and Otterbein have completed play against the gauntlet of three OAC teams currently ranked in the D3football.com Top 25 - No. 1 Mount Union, No. 9 Heidelberg and No. 15 John Carroll.
- After consecutive wins over Baldwin Wallace and at Muskingum, the Cardinals have lost their last two, including a 48-0 defeat at Mount Union last Saturday. Otterbein was held to just 37 total yards, including five rushing.
- The Cardinals lead the conference in kick return defense, allowing opponents just 13.06 yards per return, and ranks econd in punt return defense, surrendering 6.25 yards per clip.
- The Crusaders held the ball for more than 20 minutes in the first half but was unable find the end zone in the second half, falling 28-12 at Baldwin Wallace. Capital had a chance to make it a one-score deficit with eight minutes left in the game, but was stopped on fourth down in the red zone.
- Sophomore slot back Jake Breakey and freshman b-back Brent Walton each tallied the first touchdown of their careers. Breakey ran in from nine yards on fourth down with five minutes left in the first quarter, while Walton plunged in from two yards with 5:35 to play in the second.
- Five Crusaders rushed for 25 yards or more in the contest.
- Junior defensive back Anthony Cicione registered two first-half interceptions to bring his OAC-leading total to four for the season.
- Capital was ranked or was receiving votes in the D3football.com Top 25 for eight straight seasons from 2003-10. The Crusaders peaked in the rankings at No. 3 to finish the 2006 season, when they reached the NCAA quarterfinals.

GAME NOTES

SCOUTING THE CARDINALS
Otterbein lost its second straight contest against a ranked opponent, falling 48-0 at No. 1 Mount Union on Saturday. The Cardinals were outgained 418-37 yards and recorded just one first down against the Purple Raiders, who entered the week ranked first in the nation in total defense.

Quarterback Ben Sizemore leads the Otterbein offense with 1,064 yards through the air and eight touchdowns against just one interception. Running back Drew Ervin leads the Cardinals with 388 rushing yards and two touchdowns, averaging 5.2 yards per carry. Steven Carpenter leads the receiving corps with 433 yards and four scores, while Jeremy McCoy is close behind with 295 yards and a touchdown.

Linebacker Austin Jones leads the defense with 69 tackles and is first in the conference in solo tackles per game and second in tackles for loss per game. Eleven other Cardinals have 20 tackles or more, including linebacker Eric Mitchell, who has 50 stops.

Otterbein has shown the ability to take care of the ball, posting one turnover at Mount Union and just six for the season, good for a tie for first in the league in that category. The Cardinals' offense averages 11.1 points per game, which is 10th in the OAC.

"Otterbein is a team that has had some injuries this year on both sides of the ball," Candeto said, "but they're a well-coached football team and a team that's coming off of a big year last year. They play fast and they play hard, and that will be ramped up even more with this being a rivalry game."

FOUR CRUSADERS NOMINATED FOR ACADEMIC ALL-OAC HONORS
Four members of the Capital University football team have been nominated for selection for 2013 Academic All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors.

Senior Domenic Hebebrand (Hinckley, Ohio), juniors Adam Gammell (Silver Lake, Ohio) and Nolan Gill (Hilliard, Ohio) and sophomore Ryan Dupain (Burgettstown, Pa.) are each on the varsity roster, are of sophomore academic standing and have a grade point average above 3.495 on a 4.0 scale.

Academic All-OAC honorees will be announced later this month.

CRUSADERS RANK AMONG OAC LEADERS
Several members of the Capital University football team are among Ohio Athletic Conference statistical leaders entering the final third of the season.

Freshman quarterback Chase Longwell is in the top 10 in the league in rushing (56.0 yards per game, 8th), passing (58.6 ypg, 10th) and total offense (114.6 ypg, 10th). Senior slot back Alex Coleman is fifth in all-purpose yards with 120.0 yards per affair and third in kick return average (20.8). For the season, Coleman has 840 all-purpose yards (328 rushing, 42 receiving, 55 punt return, 415 kick return).

Junior kicker Travis Bosanac is eighth in scoring among kickers with 16 points. Junior punter Joey Riley is seventh in the OAC in punting with a 36.2 yards per kick average.

Defensively, junior defensive back Anthony Cicione moved into first in the league with four interceptions, two of which came in the first half last Saturday at Baldwin Wallace. Cicione is also tied for third with seven passes defensed. Senior defensive back Domenic Hebebrand is eighth in tackles per game with 9.2, while junior linebacker Wesley Meadows is 18th with 6.3 per contest. Sophomore defensive lineman Vince Austin is tied for second in the league with two forced fumbles.

Ohio Athletic Conference

Capital University enters its 88th season as a member of the Ohio Athletic Conference in 2013-14. The OAC is the nation's third-oldest collegiate athletic conference and from its beginnings in 1902 has never wavered in its focus on the entire development of the student-athlete. The conference's unparalleled success of all its members on and off the playing field has made the OAC one of the nation's finest college conferences.

The OAC is predated only by the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (1888) and the Big Ten (1895). The OAC is older than the Rose Bowl, the World Series and even the NCAA itself and has survived two world wars, the Great Depression, the Korean War and the Vietnam Conflict. From a modest beginning of six charter members in 1902, the OAC grew to as many as 24 members in the mid-1920s. Through the years a total of 31 colleges and universities at one time or another have been members of the OAC. Currently, the conference consists of 10 members: Baldwin Wallace University, Capital University, Heidelberg University, John Carroll University, Marietta College, the University of Mount Union, Muskingum University, Ohio Northern University, Otterbein University and Wilmington College.

Case Tech's football team won the OAC's first conference title with a 5-0-0 record. Outdoor track was added a year later and a third sport, cross country, became a conference sport in 1914. More sports were steadily added to the OAC's repertoire throughout the years, culminating in the addition of women's sports in 1984. The OAC currently sponsors championships in 21 sports, 11 men's and 10 women's. All 10 of the OAC institutions were founded in the 19th century and have long and outstanding academic reputations.

While maintaining these high academic standards, Ohio Athletic Conference teams and athletes consistently have enjoyed a great deal of success on a regional and national level. The athletic competition is viewed not as an end in itself, but as an extension of the educational programs, academic values that make the OAC one of the finest conferences in the nation.

Preview

The Capital University football team begins the 2013 season under the direction of a new leader. Craig Candeto, a former standout Division I quarterback, Navy fighter pilot and assistant coach, was named the program's 11th head coach in December. He inherits a team that posted a 2-8 overall record, including a 2-7 mark in Ohio Athletic Conference play, in 2012, the first time in more than a decade that the Crusaders finished with less than five wins in a year.

Capital returns 32 letter winners to the fold this fall, including several student-athletes with starting experience and both kickers. Senior quarterbacks Ryan Kremchek (Sylvania) and Alex Nydza begin the preseason as the front runners to work under center. Kremcheck threw for 461 yards and three touchdowns a year ago, while Nydza ran for 134 yards and passed for 263. The starting quarterback will likely be joined in the backfield by sophomore running back Bo Hardy (Galloway), who was named honorable mention All-OAC after finishing fourth in the league in rushing yards per game (67.6). Overall, Hardy ran for 608 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns (1 rush/1 receiving). The Crusaders also return their top wide receiver in senior Alex Coleman (Columbus), who finished with 36 receptions for 528 yards and three scores. Coleman, who placed fourth in the conference in all-purpose yards (1,252) last year, is also the team's primary punt and kick returner and is nearing school records in both categories. Capital is also set to return three starters on the offensive line, including seniors David Howson (Hudson) and Anthony Colucci (Ashtabula).

Defensively, the Crusaders return three-fourths of their starting secondary and a pair of starters in their linebacking corps. Senior defensive back Domenic Hebebrand (Hinckley) is a 2011 All-OAC honorable mention recipient and is the team's top returning tackler. Hebebrand registered 67 stops, including 9.5 for a loss, and posted one interception and a forced fumble in 2012. Junior Adam Gammell (Silver Lake) also returns as a starter in the defensive backfield. Junior linebacker Matt Tash (Painesville) emerged late last season as one of the team's top defensive players. Tash finished the year with 42 tackles, three sacks, an interception, a fumble recovery and a fumble forced. Sophomore linebacker Bryant Bokovitz (Gallipolis) also played his way into the starting lineup last season and looks to continue his strong play this fall.

Junior kicker Travis Bosanac (Strongsville) led the OAC with 10 field goals, including a long of 49 yards, in 13 attempts a year ago. He led Capital in scoring with 43 points. Junior punter Joseph Riley (Twinsburg) averaged 37.0 yards per punt and pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line 11 times last season.

The Crusaders kickoff the season on Saturday, Sept. 7, against Thomas More (Ky.) at Bernlohr Stadium. Following a bye week, Capital travels to Marietta for its OAC opener on Sept. 21. The team hosts Ohio Northern on Sept. 28 on Homecoming Saturday at Capital. After playing four of the next five on the road, a stretch during which the team's lone home game is against defending national champion Mount Union (Oct. 19), the Crusaders close the season with consecutive home games against Muskingum (Nov. 9) and Wilmington (Nov. 16).
